

6:30 call to order

Sue, Mo, Don, Andy, Ted guests: Dan

ZONING REQUESTS:

Super Pollo, LLC on East 82nd Street

- Beer and wine license.
- Andy moves to not oppose - Don 2nd.
- Passes unanimously.

9111 Allisonville Rd. - Old FC Tucker Office

- Indianapolis Childrens Choir wishes to terminate all commitments related to the property.
- Discussion related to several (Commitments 12, 15, 18, and 20) that GACC may prefer remain in place.
- Don moves that Sue send letter to petitioner's counsel requesting more information - Mo 2nd.

TREASURER REPORT

- The Mailing Station annual fee is $100 with our not-for-profit discount.
- Accounts:
 - Checking has $1,474 after a $22 INbiz fee.
 - Savings has $11,524.69 after $0.19 interest payment.

OLD BUSINESS

79th & Dean Roundabout

- A meeting took place on 8/23 at Allisonville Christian Church.
- Another meeting will be scheduled for community discussion; Dan will advise as to date, time, and location.

NEW BUSINESS

President's Letter

- Sue is drafting the letter.
- Directors are encouraged to recruit new Board members.

REPORTS FROM LOCAL OFFICIALS

Dan Boots

- Nickleplate trail progressing nicely.
 - Having discussions with companies to activate edges of the trail.
 - BRAG funded Nickleplate intersection studies at 62nd, 71st, and 82nd Streets.
 - Fishers funding 96th Street bridge with Federal funding through DNR Next Level Trails grant.
 - Long-term plan provides for a bridge over Keystone, though the plan for 82nd Street remains unclear.
- Next round of Elevate crime grants have been announced.
- Residential street paving program has been resurrected.
- Indianapolis Neighborhood Infrastructure Program opens soon - Dan will notify GACC.
 - Neighborhoods can apply for road improvement funding and City will match the cost put forth by an HOA or other organization.
- IndyGo is altering routes from a hub-and-spoke to grid pattern, which will eventually alter the current route on Allisonville Road.

ADJOURNED AT 7:40pm

Minutes Recorded by Ted & Submitted by Gigi Caito

Next meeting November 8, 2022